English Proficiency Exam for Exchange Programmes;

Students who would like to study abroad and do internship within the scope of Erasmus + Exchange Program are required to take the written exam which will take place on 15/03/2026, as well as the speaking exam on 17/04/2026. The first session of the Erasmus+ language exam, the written exam (75%), aims to measure the student's grammar, reading-comprehension skills and vocabulary, and the second session of the oral exam (25%) aims to measure the speaking skill. Candidates who do not attend the first session will not be entitled to attend the second session. There is no make-up exam for the language exam.

Students whose weighted written exam score (75%) is at least 40 will be eligible to take the oral exam. Those who fail to meet this threshold will not be included in the evaluation process.

To pass the exam and become eligible for the Student Mobility, students must receive a minimum score from the English exam (total score obtained from the verbal and written exams) corresponding to B2 level according to the CEFR system. The minimum score required to pass the exam is 65 (sixty five).

Students who will not take the Foreign Language Proficiency Exam to be administered by our University can submit a letter including their scores of an exam deemed equivalent by ÖSYM (Centre for Assessment, Selection and Placement) (such as TOEFL, IBT, PTE Academic, CPE and CAE). The score obtained from such equivalent exams must correspond to the minimum score required (65) for ; KPDS/ÜDS/YDS. The score obtained from an equivalent exam will be deemed valid and evaluated according to ÖSYM's Score Conversion Scale. The relevant exam result documents must be uploaded to the system during the application. Documents sent after the application are not accepted.

Note: Students who have achieved a passing score in the Erasmus Language Proficiency Exam held on 05.11.2025 and 07.11.2025 may, if they wish, use their score from this exam in their applications.

The list of applicants to take the exam and exam hours will later be announced on the website's "announcements" section.

Erasmus+ Programme Inclusion Support;

Erasmus+ promotes the participation of people with special needs in the programme. People whose physical, mental or health-related conditions are such that their participation in Erasmus+ would not be possible without extra financial support are potential participants.

Students must submit their request including the report for Erasmus+ Additional Grant to the Erasmus+ Office (For instance, if they request an Additional Grant Support due to a disability, they must attach the medical report (the report must be issued within 3 months before the application) which includes the necessary information about the disability and the level of the disability, or a copy of their disability ID card. A medical report is also required for those with chronic diseases.)

Once found eligible, students must attach the necessary documents (including that the receiving higher education institution is informed of the guest student/staff member is a participant with special needs and the institution's undertaking that it has the necessary equipment to host the participant with special needs) to the form. The additional grant amounts and the grounds for such request must be explained in detail in the form as requested.

Important Note: The documents required in the relevant article must be uploaded to the application system. Documents submitted after the application will not be evaluated.

Quota;

Students are ranked based on their total scores and placed according to their preference order and the quota availability of the universities.

Within the scope of our project numbered 2025-1-TR01-KA131-HED-000326677, the total quota allocated for student mobility for internship is 14 (fourteen) students. The quota distribution by the Erasmus+ Evaluation Committee on a faculty/vocational school basis will be determined according to the criteria listed below.

Based on the Senate decision dated 15.06.2022 and numbered 2022/55-3, the following faculties were prioritized for the fair distribution of the grant.

1. Faculty with a large number of English departments

2. Faculty with a large number of students

3. Faculties/vocational school with a large number of departments/programmes

Waitlisted students (unable to receive a grant) can participate in the mobility with “0” grants (without grants) within the quotas of the universities we have agreement with.

Erasmus+ Internship Mobility: Students who will be eligible for a grant within the framework of Erasmus+ Internship Mobility can receive a grant for a minimum of 2 months, depending on the grant amount to be allocated by the National Agency. Students, if they wish, can continue their internship activities after 2 months with "0" grant (no grant).

Erasmus+ Learning ve Internship Mobility: Can be done up to a total of 12 months in each education level (associate degree, bachelor's degree). The total mobility period (study + internship) in each level cannot exceed 12 months.

Monthly Amounts of Grant Based on the Countries Travelled within the scope of the 2025 Erasmus Project.

Grants are given to students to help them with additional expenses arising from being abroad during their activity abroad. Grants are only a contribution, not intended to cover the full costs of the student's mobility.
